Statement of Purpose

This Web site is an educational and informational electronic publication of (HFHGC). Its purpose is to share the story of HFHGC, our work and mission, and to invite interested online visitors to be part of our efforts. HFHGC works in partnership with God and people to eliminate poverty housing by creating the opportunity for a hand up to homeownership for hard-working, low-income families in our community. While we are an organization founded on Christian values, we work with and serve people of any race, culture, and religious affiliation.

Privacy Policy

HFHGC is committed to respecting the privacy of online visitors and pledges its best efforts to that end. In general, you can visit HFHGC on the Web without telling us who you are or revealing anything about yourself.

Our Web server automatically recognizes each visitor's domain name, but does not automatically collect personally identifiable information. There are times, however, such as when you register for an event, register to volunteer, provide information for homeownership pre-screening, make a donation, or sign-up for our newsletter, that we will collect specific information. If you choose to provide personally identifiable data, you may receive future information from us--by mail, electronically or by telephone--advising you of upcoming Habitat for Humanity events, services, new products, or volunteer and support opportunities. If you do not wish to be contacted with such information, please let us know by writing or sending an e-mail to the addresses at the top of this page. You can, however, have your name put on our do-not-contact list by e-mailing or writing to us at the addresses above. Please make sure to provide your full name and address for exclusion from "future contact." HFHGC does not share our lists with non-affiliated organizations.

On some pages, you can submit information about other people. For example, if you make a donation in honor of another person, you will submit the recipient's name so that we can send them a letter announcing your honorarium donation. We use this information only for this purpose and we do not share such information with outside parties.

A "cookie" is a small piece of data stored on your computer's hard drive when you visit our Web site. Habitat uses cookies to analyze our Web site's overall traffic patterns and improve our visitors' online experience. We do not use cookies to store or collect any personal information. Many browsers provide an option to block or remove cookies. You can visit habitatcolumbus.org successfully while blocking cookies, but leaving cookies enabled in your browser will help us to improve our site's usability and effectiveness.

In order to provide a more comprehensive and useful site, the HFHGC site contains links to other Web sites. HFHGC is not responsible for the content or privacy practices of these sites.

Note to Parents

We are pleased when young people visit the Web site of HFHGC to learn more about the organization and the problem of poverty housing. HFHGC does not knowingly solicit data from children and does not knowingly market to children.

Credit Card Information

HFHGC contracts the services of a banking partner to process credit card donations submitted online. Our banking partner's secured server encrypts your credit card information so that it may be safely transmitted over the Web. Your credit card information will not be released by HFHGC or its banking partner to any other party.

Our Commitment to Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Feedback Invited

Again, thank you for visiting the Web site of HFHGC. We welcome your feedback and invite you to share any questions you may have about our organization or our Web privacy practices. Please contact: webmaster@HabitatColumbus.org
